Defendant Gerald Armstrong respectfully objects for the reasons set forth below to the proposed Order submitted by plaintiff Scientology organization, a copy of which is appended hereto as Exhibit A. Armstrong submits separately a proposed Order which conforms with this Court's ruling at the June 7, 1996 hearing.

1. At the June 7 hearing, this Court did not rule that Scientology may proceed in the Marin County action "on all remaining causes of action." This Court ruled that Scientology may proceed on its "fraudulent conveyance" causes of action, but may not proceed on any cause of action against Armstrong.

2. Armstrong was cautioned by Los Angeles Superior Judge Ronald Sohigian that in any dealings with Scientologists to make sure to count the chips and cut the cards.

3. Scientology is known within the American legal system as a dishonest and vexatious litigant which plays fast and loose with the justice system.

4. Scientology is untrustworthy and its proposed Order if signed will be used to obtain an unfair advantage in the Marin action.

Armstrong requests therefore that his proposed Order which accompanies this objection be approved by this Court.

DATED: June 21, 1996.
